Charles B. Wrightsman, Esq.

Dear Charlie:

I received just as you were leaving, your itinerary and hope to be in touch with you either at Antibes or Paris during the month of August.

I just had the visit here of my old friend, Walter Kerr, whom I previously mentioned to you, and who, with his wife, is the publisher of "The American Abroad," which you probably have available there in Paris. Walter Kerr is a very old friend of mine and I gave him your name and he may drop in to see you on his return to Paris tomorrow. He has an interesting project which is going through its expected growing pains, but the project in my opinion has some merit to it, and I thought it might interest you and Jayne, particularly the art side of his publication.

Clover is off in Mexico doing some painting on her own, otherwise she would be joining me in love to Jayne and you.

Sincerely,
